PEACE EDUCATION BOOKS

A Selective Bibliography with a Focus on Materials in English, German and the Scandinavian Languages

Åke Bjerstedt

The present miniprint lists examples of monographs and collections of papers explicitly dealing with peace education. (Some special issues of journals devoted to the area of peace education have also been included.) The major focus is on materials in English, German and the Scandinavian languages from later years.

For those who are not familiar at all with this area, the fairly large number of references may be experienced as confusing. Therefore, an asterisk (*) has been used to mark a few publications as valuable for those who would like to get some introduction and review. These selections can to some extent be seen as arbitrary, in the sense that several other publications could have been chosen for the same purpose. Nevertheless, it is hoped that these notations may be felt as useful for some readers.
